

Thank everyone for coming out – explain who we are – what we

Thank Naomi Wilzig the founder and creator of this 12,000 sq ft institution of “naughty” history. Libraries come under attack for supporting or suppressing censorship – depends who’s doing the attacking. Naomi is going to give us an overview of what she encountered on the way to finding an appropriate outlet to display such an inventory of artworks.

“From Pompeii to Pin-up” – new exhibit on December 1st.

Friday March 19, 2010 – Keynote Speaker – Diana Silvera of AAL – online chat, texting, ability to script dialogs – reach library resources throughout the state in a knowledge base – refine & improve reference skills rewarding the best transcripts each month.

Coming soon – DCLA’s website.